

For the past 9 years Leave a Legacy, a part of the Planned Giving Council of Greater Baton Rouge, has honored individuals and families in our community with a Leave a Legacy Award. The recipients of this award have been recognized by area nonprofit organizations for their outstanding generosity and commitment to philanthropy by making a sacrificial planned gift to the charity of their choice. The honorees will be presented at the annual National Philanthropy Day luncheon hosted on November 10, 2009, at Boudreaux's Restaurant by the Association of Fundraising Professionals, Greater Baton Rouge Chapter.

The following criteria should be considered when evaluating your honoree:

- Evidence of direct planned gift support, including name of organization(s) and cause(s)
- Description of impact this planned gift is anticipated to make on your organization
- Evidence of encouragement and motivation by honoree to others to make planned gifts in support of your organization
